Ready, Respectful, Safe

Dear Parents / Carers,

This week has been truly lovely. The progress your children are making and the way they interact with staff is amazing. We spoke to a number of external agencies this week and all of them said how impressed they were with the educational offer but also the children's behaviour. One person told me that they work in a range of schools and at the moment our children are consistently the best behaved and the politest, which is just lovely to hear.

As the autumn term is heading to a close, children have been undertaking their assessments. We are thrilled that the Year 6 data, particularly for reading, is looking very strong for this time of the year. The amount of progress made in all year groups is staggering and I hope to be able to share some of these strengths after the data analysis is completed by Miss. Candish over the Christmas period. It would also be really good if we could have your help to support some of the areas of development as well.

On Monday, Revd. Wendy will be visiting school to lead an Advent assembly with KS2 children and then a Christmas Service with EYFS and KS1 children, who will also be making Christingles to take into the hall. We will stress to them that they cannot eat the dolly mixtures until they get home!

A couple of reminders...

- ⇒ please can you not park on the double yellow lines at Larham Way as the midwife (amongst other people) could not get through to her appointment—thank you.
- ⇒ We also have some cases of nits across the school so please can you check your child/ren's hair and also wash the bedding at a high temperature if eggs are found.

In singing assembly this week, the school choir sang two Christmas carols to the school and they sounded beautiful. They will be at the church this evening if you would like to support them. Thank you to Mrs. Bendzulla and Mr. Rhodes for running this club and supporting the children so well.

Have a great weekend!

Mrs. Coates
